

Emma Small BSc (Hons) PGCert CGeol RoGEP
Associate Director

Emma has 20 years experience in undertaking a wide range of geotechnical and Geoenvironmental ground investigations ranging from Phase I Desk Studies, intrusive investigations up to £600k in value, risk assessments, remediation of contaminated sites, earthworks supervision and specifications, MMP's, slope stability assessment, multi-disciplinary project management, geotechnical design, research and investigation.

In addition, Emma has completed supervision and inspections works on earth retaining walls, investigations to establish the cause of structural damage in relation to the ground, sinkhole collapse and mine working investigations. Emma's experience is spread across the UK. Responsible for the delivery of projects within the design and project management team. Responsibilities included client liaison, financial management and projection, programming, resource optimization and design co-ordination.

Recent experience includes ground investigations for the environment agency and at schools, hospitals, commercial developments and industrial sites across the UK.

T: 01604 781811
M: 07386 956722
E: emma.small@jppuk.net

Scan the QR code to find out more about JPP.

